Man Divine

Stephen Clark

My intentions are chaste and pure,
I'm regal, robust and refined,
My words are so sweet and sincere,
I'm within and without divine.

Confidence emanates from me,
I'm not cocky or proud,
I turn heads on the street,
I stick out in a crowd.

I'm a man of poise,
A brother of enigma,
I'm the unsung voice,
That dispels stereotypes and stigmas.

I am freedom from bondage,
I'm color in a world of gray,
I'm revered and honored,
I shine like the light of day.

I am the Is that Is,
More valuable than gold,
The epitome of real,
I am the ethereal soul.

I am the paradigm,

That eternally shines, and gives hope

I am selflessness, the sacrifice

That helps the weak to cope.

I am the answer to the question,

That has survived the test of time,

I am what truth is to a confession,

I am within and without, a Man Divine.
