FREE SCHOOLS BACK

Free schools are on the uprise once again with over 500 schools worldwide and counting

BUT THIS DID NOT HOLD

due to the Nixon administration's education policies. These new guidelines made it hard for free schools to still operate in the

THE FREE SCHOOL MOVEMENT

These schools started from parents, teachers, and students to go outside the public schooling idea and start there on school witch would be founded bassed of grants and scholarships. The ideology came from a guy named A. S. Neill and his Summerhill school.

The idea for this school is the belief that schools should fit the children and it is a free learning place so the students can blossom in there self. This usually causes the school to not have traditional tests or quizzes and makes the class very interactive in theory.
