

MERRY CHRISTMAS

The BULLETIN

Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial State College

VOLUME XXIX.

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE, DECEMBER, 1940

No. 4.

Governor Cooper and Chief Justice Grafton Green, Principal Speakers

AT INTERRACIAL AND FOUNDER'S DAY PROGRAM AT TENNESSEE A. & I. STATE COLLEGE.

"We believe in your sound leadership; we have confidence in you and your institution," was the statement made with reference to the work of President W. J. Hale and the Tennessee A. & I. College, by Governor Prentice Cooper on the occasion of the 22nd annual meeting of the Interracial League of Tennessee and Founder's Day celebration held at the Tenn. A. & I. College, Thanksgiving morning at 10:00 o'clock.

The Governor spoke of the awakening of the schools in face of the present crisis to the need of teaching the practical in life. The work of the Tenn. A. & I. College and like institutions, it was stated, stands in the forefront of helping in the realization of this need.

Chief Justice Grafton Green, likewise spoke of the contribution President Hale and the college are making toward the welfare of the state and nation.

"The greatest blessing that can be bestowed on any people is the existence of peace," declared the Justice, in giving thanks in keeping with the program of Interracial goodwill.

"We are glad to say that all departments of our great country can feast together in a democratic spirit," continued the Justice.

(Continued on Page 2)

"Miss Tennessee A. & I." - 1940-41

MISS CATHERINE COLEMAN

By unanimous vote, Miss Catherine Coleman, of Memphis, Tennessee was elected queen for the year 1940-41.

The modest and charming young woman, represents the type of womanhood for which her Alma Mater stands.

Miss Coleman is a junior, a major in the department of Home Economics, and has for her hobbies music, tennis and other sport activities. Her aspiration is that of dental hygienist. She is a member of the Ivy Leaf Club of Alpha Psi Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority.

Students, faculty and her host of friends wish for her a happy reign throughout the year.

WEEK OF RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS TO BE OBSERVED

By Tennessee A. & I. College, Fisk University, Meharry Medical College and Baptist Theological Seminary.

Realizing the intimate relation between education and religion, Tennessee A. & I. College, Fisk University, and Meharry Medical College through the University Christian Mission entered into a joint consideration of the problems facing the students of the three campuses.

The week of February 3-9, 1940 brought to the institutions the most profound group of thinkers ever assembled for a similar purpose.

Such outstanding national and international characters as Dr. Howard Thurman, Dr. T. Z. Koo, Dr. Daniel T. Niles, Dr. Rufus E. Clement, Mrs. Grace Sloan Overton, Mrs. Harper Sibley, Dr. William Stuart Nelson, Dr. Harold Cooke Phillips and Dr. W. T. Nelson, shared their philosophies of life with the thinking college youth.

So stimulating and inspiring were the results of last year's program that it was agreed by the presidents of the colleges to continue through the joint executive committee a program of like nature.

To that end, the colleges are looking forward to the week of February 16-21 as a week of religious emphasis.

Plans are underway to secure outstanding speakers of the various walks

(CONTINUED ON PAGE 3)

Tenn. State Coll. SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

GOVERNOR COOPER AND CHIEF JUSTICE GRAFTON GREEN, PRINCIPAL SPEAKERS

(Continued from Page 1)

Among other outstanding speakers on the program were: Dr. W. P. King, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate; Dr. W. J. Faulkner, minister, Fisk University; Mr. W. E. Turner, state department of education; Dr. Marshall Talley, of the National Baptist Sunday School Board; Mr. W. P. Cooper, father of Governor Prentice Cooper; Mr. H. G. Heart, Vanderbilt University; Mrs. Frankie J. Pierce, girl's Vocational school; Dr. Charles Johnson, Fisk University; Dr. S. L. Smith, Peabody College; Mr. R. H. Eagle, State department; Dr. J. H. Hale, Meharry Medical College; Dr. Mattie Coleman, physician, Nashville; President W. J. Hale, president of the Interracial League and Mr. R. E. Clay, executive secretary.

Dr. G. W. Gore, director of instruction, Tenn. A. & I. College, briefly reviewed the history and work of the college during its twenty-eight years of existence. The institution now stands as the largest land-grant college and the second largest Negro institution in the country, with an enrollment of more than 1,200 students, representing thirty-three states and a physical plant worth more than three million dollars.

HOLIDAY FESTIVAL MARKED THANKSGIVING PROGRAM AT TENN. A. & I. STATE COLLEGE

Amid one of the most spectacular settings ever witnessed, 1,200 students and the entire faculty of the Tennessee A. and I. State College participated in a mammoth harvest day festival on Thanksgiving day beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning and continuing throughout the day.

Following the 10:00 o'clock morning service of the Interracial League and Founder's Day, at which His Excellency, the Governor of Tennessee, Honorable Prentice Cooper and Chief Justice Grafton Green addressed the meeting, the entire student enrollment moved into a mass festival rejoicing.

The athletic field, which is one of the finest if not the finest in the south, was colorful with "Miss Tennessee A. & I," Miss Catherine Coleman of Memphis and her attendants, "Miss Freshman," Miss Jimmie Pearl Thomas of Chattanooga; "Miss Sophomore," Miss Minnie Compton of Nashville; "Miss Junior," Miss Grace Howard of Nashville; and "Miss Senior," Miss Marie Baxter of Cincinnati, Ohio.

The beauty of the harvest extravaganza was enhanced by 28 additional queens representing various states according to enrollment. Floats decorated with appropriate state, club and other organization emblems and insignias, made the field glow with color and life.

One of the major attractions of the athletic stadium events was the exhibition by Melvin Walker and D. D. Albritton, American Olympic honor holders in high jump and broad jump events.

Other activities on the field included football, calisthenic demonstrations and a salute to the American flag.

In addition to "Miss Tennessee A. & I." and her attendants, the following queens reigned: Organizations—Art, Miss Frances Berry; Business Education, Miss Ethel Mott; Dramatics, Miss Annie Galloway; Football, Miss Gladys Holt; Home Economics, Miss Ernestine Howse; New Farmers of America, Miss Charity Martin; Personality Group, Miss Vera Allen; Brain Trust, Miss Sara Payne; Concert Singers, Miss Evelyn Hodges; Elementary Education, Miss Margaret Marsh; History Study Club, Miss Anita Smith; Literati, Miss Harriett Ray; Orchestra, Miss Helen Seoney; Romantic Linguistics, Miss Fay Glover. States: Alabama, Miss Clarice Chambers; Arkansas, Miss Willie Stevenson; Georgia, Miss Emma Hines; Indiana, Miss Pauline Weir; Kentucky, Miss Helen Mathis; Michigan, Miss Gladys Howse; Missouri, Miss Gladys Shockley; New York, Miss Helene Anderson; Ohio, Miss Grace Spearman; Pennsylvania, Miss Ruth Lowe; Virginia, Miss Vonetta C. Smith; Florida, Miss Willie Joyner; Illinois, Miss Alice Calvert; Iowa, Miss Geneva Morrow; Louisiana, Miss Georgia Coleman; Mississippi, Miss Mary Ward; Nebraska, Miss Lorene Lewis; North Carolina, Miss Dorothy Greer; Oklahoma, Miss Vernice Clay; Texas, Miss Ida Castleberry; Wisconsin, Miss Iris Bailey. Cities: Nashville, Miss Dorothy Thompson; Birmingham, Miss Jimmie

Hunt; Mobile, Miss Margaret Inston; Chicago, Miss Marie Grant; Jackson, Miss Willie Bass. Other States, Miss Gladys Hurt.

Musical Pageant Presented By Concert Singers

At 7:00 p. m. the college auditorium was filled to capacity to witness the Concert Singers in "Cavalcade," a pageant depicting the rise of America.

Mrs. Marie Brooks-Strange directed the group into one of the most spectacular musicals ever witnessed at the college. Miss L. M. Averitte of the department of speech and dramatics furnished the lyric composition.

The order of the pageant, which was divided into six acts was as follows: The first Thanksgiving; The birth of a nation; Westward, Ho! Expelling the shadows; Building of a nation; and America finds her music.

Leading solo parts were by: Misses Modestine Young, Ernestine Mitchell, Elizabeth Ramsey, Dorothy Gentry; Messrs Forrest Strange, Marvin Cawthon, Louis Wilson and Charles Holley.

Members of Tennessee State Players Guild Present "Breeders"

Members of the Tennessee State Players Guild, under the direction of Mr. T. E. Poag, presented on the evening program, Randolph Edmonds, "Breeders."

Cast members, who admirably played their parts were Misses Anne Galloway and Georgia Lyles; Messrs Leo Branton, Fred Summerall and Daniel Taylor.

The guild is at present undergoing intensive training for the production of "Craig's Wife," which will be given within the next few weeks.

TENNESSEE STATE PLAYERS GUILD ANNOUNCES ADDITIONAL PROGRAM FOR THE YEAR

The drama schedule of The Tennessee State Players Guild for the ensuing year is as follows:

1. "Craig's Wife," a 3 act drama, Jan. 11, 1941
2. 3 One Act Plays for Negro History Week of Feb. 15, 1941
3. "The Curtain Rises," a 3 act comedy, March 1, 1941
4. "Stage Door," 3 act comedy and drama, April 5, 1941
5. "Nothing But The Truth," 3 act comedy, May 3, 1941

LITERARY PAGE

ESSAY

POETRY

HUMOR

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

In the bleak mid-winter
Frosty wind made moan,
Earth stood hard as iron,
Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow,
Snow on snow,
In the bleak mid-winter
Long ago.

Our God, Heaven cannot hold Him
Nor earth sustain;
Heaven and earth shall flee away
When He comes to reign.
In the bleak mid-winter
A stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty
Jesus Christ.

Angels and archangels
May have gathered there,
Cherubim and seraphim
Thronged the air;
But only His Mother
In her maiden bliss
Worshipped her Beloved
With a kiss.

What can I give Him,
Poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd
I would bring a lamb,
If I were a Wise Man,
I would do my part,—
Yet what I can I give Him,
Give my heart.

—Christina G. Rossetti.

WEEK OF RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS TO BE OBSERVED

(Continued from Page 1)

of life to challenge the student groups. Among those expected to participate on the program for this year are: Mrs. Charlotte Hawkins Brown; President Mays of Morehouse College; Dr. J. C. Austin, Chicago; Bishop R. R. Wright; Dr. Oswald McCall, Chicago; Dr. Hubert King, New York and others. The Baptist Theological Seminary will this year take part in the religious program.

A LEGEND

Christ, when a child, a garden made,
And many roses flourished there,
He watered them three times a day,
To make a garland for his hair.
And when in time the roses bloomed
He called the children in to share;
They tore the flowers from every stem
And left the garden stript and bare.
"How wilt thou weave thyself a crown
Now that thy roses all are dead?"
"Ye have forgotten that the thorns
Are left for me," the Christ-child said.
They plaited then a crown of thorns
And laid it rudely on his head.
A garland for his forehead made
For roses drops of blood instead.
—Tchaikovsky.

A FRIEND

To be a true friend
Requires so much—
A kind word, a glance,
A mere touch—

I. B.

"MISS LITERATI HONOR SOCIETY"

For the Thanksgiving Parade of Queens, beautiful, poised, cultured and dignified Miss Harriet E. Ray was elected "Miss Literati Honor Society." Being a candidate for Jewelship, the highest honor of the Society, she has symbolized its ideals through her creative literary contributions and her whole-hearted services, hence the entire membership of the Society was delighted over the election of Miss Ray.

Riding in a blue Packard car, bedecked with blue and gold cellophane paper, the colors of the Society, she radiated a dimple smile of queenliness. "Miss Literati" wore a brown dress, topped with a gorgeous mink coat, upon which blue and gold "mums" were pinned, a gift of the Society.

Forming a beautiful setting for the queen, were charming and demure Misses Evelyn Dumas, and Dovie Harris, attendants and candidates for

WHILE STARS OF CHRISTMAS SHINE

While stars of Christmas shine,
Lighting the skies,
Let only loving looks,
Beam from our eyes.

While bells of Christmas ring,
Joyous and clear,
Speak only happy words,
All love and cheer.

Give only loving gifts,
And in love take;
Gladden the poor and sad
For love's dear sake.

—Emilie Poulson.

"ONE DAY IN SCHOOL PROGRAM" IN CHEATHAM AND FRANKLIN COUNTIES

A "One Day in School" program for all adults of Cheatham and Franklin Counties was held in Ashland City, Tennessee, November 30, and in Winchester, Tennessee, December 14. Mr. W. E. Turner and Mr. D. S. Tanner, State Directors of Negro Education; Mr. G. E. Freeman, State Director of Vocational Education, and Mr. R. E. Clay, State Building Developer of Negro Education are sponsors of these programs in the various counties throughout Tennessee.

These "One Day in School" programs aim to instruct the farm men and women in the social and economic phases of living. They are taught how to spend their food dollar wisely; how to plan an all-year-around garden, and how to raise poultry and other farm foods by the cooperative method.

Mrs. H. E. Hale; Miss Mable Evans, Mr. A. V. Hill, Mr. R. T. Waymer, and Dr. George N. Redd of Fisk University gave special lectures and demonstrations at each of these programs

Jewelship. The escort for the queen was Mr. Samuel Curley, vice president, also candidate for Jewelship. Pretty and petite Thelma Thomas; 1940 pledgee, drove the car, one of the most beautifully decorated in the Parade of Queens.

THE BULLETIN

Tennessee A. and I. State College

Published

By Authority of State Board of Education

Entered August 16, 1912 at the Post Office, Nashville, Tenn., as Second Class Mail Matter under the Act of Congress.

DECEMBER, 1940

CHRISTMAS THIS YEAR

*"And glory be to God on high;
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease!"*

Christmas, this year, cannot mean peace and good-will to all men.

In the eloquent plea for peace, by Pope Pius XII—a plea to God and man—there was a consciousness of the present forces which are destroying the ideals of courage and integrity which have made men brothers.

Faith in man through the teachings of Christ whose birthday we celebrate at this time of the year is the hope of the world.

We are thankful that as American citizens our fate is not the common fate of many. We rejoice that as citizens in a country that would strive for democratic practices, we are a part. We are blessed to be among those who are surrounded with wholesome teachings and high and learned ideals. Our privileges are too numerous to count, as we view them in the light of suffering humanity.

At this season of the year, as privileged young men and women in a college second to none for Negroes in America, let us realize the opportunities that are ours; let us renew the faith of our forefathers; let us give thanks for the peace we share and thus awake to the realization of our own good fortune in a time like this.

No, universal peace does not exist this Christmas. The spirit of discord and rancor is probably greater today than in many years past, but we are among the favored few.

May we fully realize our blessings and praise God that we live, and enjoy His goodness, far beyond our probable worth.

Finally, may we share this blessing with our parents, friends and less fortunate brothers during our Christmas vacation and throughout this year and the years to come, to the end that peace and good-will cover the world.

STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, DIVISION OF CERTIFICATION,

Nashville, Tenn.
July 30, 1940Directors
Extension and Correspondence
Teacher Training Institutions

Dear Sirs:

The State Board of Education on May 6, 1938 adopted a two-year curriculum program for the training of elementary teachers in Tennessee. This program is the only basis for issuing a permanent professional elementary certificate in Tennessee, and all applicants who have acquired college credits since the inception of this program are required to limit their credits to this program. We also recommend that all who entered college before the fall of 1938 conform to the two-year program pattern.

We are asking in your extension and correspondence courses that you acquaint the prospective teachers with the two-year program, with the number of college hours that can be acquired in each learning area and that all courses be limited to the first and second year college level if these credits are to be offered for certification in the two-year curriculum for elementary teachers.

Credits earned for the high school certificate by extension or correspondence may be offered as supplementary credits in meeting the quarter hour requirements for each area of learning.

Very truly yours,

C. M. Hardison, Supervisor
Division of Certification
Approved: B. O. Duggan
Commissioner of Education
CMH:K

GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF COMMUNITY CHEST FUND CONGRATULATES PRES. HALE

The following correspondence comes from Mr. Walter Stokes, Jr., general chairman of the Community Chest Fund to President W. J. Hale, chairman of the Negro division:

STOKES-BANDY CO., INC.
General Insurance-Bonds
The Arcade Building
Nashville, Tennessee
November 22, 1940

Dr. W. J. Hale,
A. & I. State College
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Dr. Hale:

Now that the Community Chest Campaign has been successfully concluded, I can not let another day pass without making formal expression to you for the outstanding record made by the Colored Division under your leadership.

The magnificent report which you made, amounting to more than $10,000.00, came to us at a time when our spirits were lagging, and constituted an inspiration for the final effort which brought success.

Please understand that you and your splendid co-workers have won my unstinted gratitude, as well as that of the entire Community Chest organization.

I wish you would do me the further kindness to convey to Dean Gore and to your other associates whose work was outstanding, the content of this letter.

Again expressing my appreciation to you and with profound respect, I am

Very sincerely yours,
Walter Stokes, Jr.
General Chairman.

WSJR:rc.

TRIBUTE TO A & I. "SERVERS"

One of the most important duties of A. & I. State College is serving host to its many visitors, who come from all parts of the country to participate in special occasions, such as, anniversaries, festivities, commencement, conventions, conferences, football games, etc. Students and faculty have such an excellent record for Southern hospitality that it is known throughout the United States.

Beautiful and magnificent as the school plant may be, interesting and progressive as the students and faculty are, the record of courtesy and hospitality wins the hearts of all visitors to whom the doors of the college are opened.

Among those who have played a vital part in extending these courtesies are the ever-faithful and loyal members of the Literati Honor Society. For nine years, since the organization of this society, the Administration has granted this opportunity to serve. Untiringly, the members have served as hosts, hostesses, messengers, guides and ushers. LOYAL SERVERS OF A. & I.

Have you seen on duty these A. & I. State Servers, badged in blue and gold?

Have you seen them carrying luggage, receiving guests, answering telephones, directing traffic, ushering, and checking coats? LOYAL SERVERS OF A. & I.

Have you heard them in a courteous manner say, "This is the way to the Administration Building, or Hale Hall or Wilson Hall. Have you heard, "May I assist you with your luggage?" LOYAL SERVERS OF A. & I.

During the Thanksgiving festivities of 1940, the following pledgees and members served under the direction of Miss Redmond, founder of the society:

Good-will Manor—Tempie Lay, Clara Washington, Rowena Henry, Valcour Williams, Mazarene Terrell, Estella Flye, Josephine Holbert, Bessie Moore, Sara Payne and Juanita Vannay.

Administration Building—Mahlow Inman, Holbert Dockins, Joseph Marshall, Samuella Curley, Otta Bullard, Edward Young.

Cafeteria—Dorris Crosby, Helen Cox, and Avis Ewing.

Wilson Hall—Mary Griffin, Bertha Parker, Annie Chester, Jeanette Brazier.

President Hale, Mrs. Hale, Dean Gore and Mr. Clay, who have watched with interest and appreciation these servers, join the entire college in paying highest tribute to these symbols of A. & I. service. LOYAL A. & I. SERVERS!

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVITIES

The active program being sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., along with other organizations, is in a large measure responsible for the wholesome religious attitude prevailing on the campus.

Outstanding programs have been rendered; prominent speakers connected with the organization have been brought to the campus; and conferences in interest of the organization have been attended.

At the installation services and tea in the recreation hall, more than one hundred were present.

On November 22 a special program, "On Wings of Music," composed of faculty talent, was given in the auditorium.

The participants were Messrs J. C. James, J. D. Hayes, T. E. Poag, F. Strange and Mrs. Marie Brooks-Strange.

The occasion was one of the most cultural highlights of the season.

On Sunday evening, December 1, in Madisonville, Tennessee, Mrs. Lena B. Watson dean of men, and representative of the Y. W. C. A. with Mr. Floyd C. Mourning, of the department of Health and Physical Education and representing the Y. M. C. A. attended the Area Conference. This meeting brought together representatives from Vanderbilt, Ward Belmont, The University of Tennessee, Fisk, Tennessee A. & I. College and other institutions.

Miss Hilda Davis, dean of women, Talladega College and Miss Height, national representative of the Y. W. C. A., Washington, D. C., who has travelled extensively throughout England, Switzerland and Russia, addressed the conference.

Miss Celestine Smith, national student secretary, with Miss Augusta

SUNDAY SCHOOL PRESENTS "WHY THE CHIMES RANG" IN EARLY MORNING CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.

As a traditional feature of the Sunday School program, members of the Players Guild presented at 5:30 a. m. Sunday, December 16, in the college auditorium a play entitled, "Why the Chimes Rang."

The colorful and impressive production was supported by the following cast: Holger, Theodore Kelsey; Steen; Elvin Calhoun; Bertel, James Farrell; An Old Woman, Ruth Thomas. The multitude composed of Lords, Ladies, a Priest and musical chorus, supported the scenes.

Miss L. M. Averitte was faculty director; Prof. T. E. Poag and Mr. Benton Adams were in charge of scenic arrangement and Mr. Charles Higgins was student director.

The programs of the Sunday School, this year have as of previous years, brought before the students of the college the best in form of religious and educational entertainment.

The Sunday School is under the faculty direction of Professor R. E. Clay and Dean G. W. Gore, Jr.

Roberts of the Y. W. C. A. white student group, and whose experience is rich with travel at home and abroad, addressed the students and faculty during the chapel hour on December 2.

Miss Smith stressed the importance of knowing the philosophy back of one's religion, and of realizing the forces at work today to destroy Christian principles.

The Y. W. C. A. is promoting on December 13 an Interracial program at which time students from Vanderbilt, Peabody, Fisk, Scarritt and other colleges will participate.

Miss Inez McDowell is president of the local campus organization, Miss Ethel Banks, vice president; Miss Evelyn Dumas, secretary; and Miss M. Baxter, treasurer.

Faculty committee is composed of: Miss Eunice Matthew, membership chairman; Miss Caroline Johnson, interracial chairman; and Miss Madoline Battle, chairman of activities.

Mrs. Lena B. Watson is faculty adviser.

STATE COLLEGE GRADUATE BUILDS $100,000 HIGH SCHOOL

Princeton, Ky.—The City Board of Education and the Colored School Corporation of Princeton, Kentucky have constructed a modern $100,000 high school, which was dedicated Sunday afternoon, December 1, in the school gymnasium.

The beginning of the development of educational facilities for Negroes in Princeton goes back to 1877. The present site was donated by John Dotson, a Negro citizen of Princeton.

Principal L. W. Johnson, a graduate of the Tennessee A. & I. College, with Prof. W. R. Crutchfield, Miss Juanita McNarry and other good teachers, has wrought a great piece of work, in completing this building for the citizens.

Professor Merl R. Eppse, department of History and Social Science, Tennessee A. & I. College, delivered the dedicatory address.

"HE PASSED THIS WAY"

By Glyndon V. Flynt I met him along Life's rugged highway This traveler kind, experienced and gray.

With a warm hand-shake, a friendly smile He walked with me on Earth a-while. Pointing out as we journeyed there The burdens that I would have to bear.

And then when hope's tiny ray In the distance seemed to fade away, From years of living he'd understand And when most needed, lend a hand.

Proving as my path we'd wend I had in him a staunch, sincere friend. And now my life will fuller be Because on Earth he walked with me,

And when I reach yon Celestial shore I expect to see him there, forever more. Guiding drifting souls home to rest Souls that on Earth stood the test.

Written July 1, 1938

Inspired by and dedicated to Mr. Leo Schwartz.

Time Schedule—Winter Quarter, 1940-41

December 18: Registration 8-10 a. m.; Boarders 10-12 noon; Day students 1-4 p. m.

December 19: Classes will meet in A300.

For description of courses and requirements for degrees or certificates, see General Catalog.

In no case will credit be allowed in any course for which the student is not duly registered, and all courses for which the student is registered will be recorded as passed, failed or dropped.

Courses can only be officially dropped or changed with the written approval of the Dean.

Absences will be counted from the first scheduled meeting of the class.

For registration after December 23, an extra fee of $1.00 will be charged.

Table of abbreviations: A, Administration Bldg; H, Harned Science Hall; I, Industrial Arts Bldg; L, Library; W, Women's Bldg.

Table with 5 columns: Course No. and Title, Section, Hrs., Time Days, Room. Includes sections for AGRICULTURE, ART, BIOLOGY, BUSINESS EDUCATION, CHEMISTRY, ECONOMICS, EDUCATION, ENGLISH, FRENCH, GEOGRAPHY, GERMAN, HEALTH, HISTORY, HOME ECONOMICS.

Table with 7 columns: Course No. and Title, Section, Hrs., Time Days, Room, Room, HISTORY STUDY CLUB PRESENTS LOUIS ARMSTRONG AND ORCHESTRA TO CAPACITY CROWD.

HISTORY STUDY CLUB PRESENTS LOUIS ARMSTRONG AND ORCHESTRA TO CAPACITY CROWD

Louis Armstrong and His Orchestra thrilled the hundreds who witnessed his spectacular display of musical talent in the college recreation hall on Friday evening, December 6.

The History Study, one of the largest student organizations in the college, with more than two-hundred members, brought the famed orchestra to the campus.

It is a yearly feature of the club, along with other attractions of an educational nature, to raise funds by which some worthy undertaking, in the form of a scholarship or some similar type of endeavor, can be promoted. The proceeds of this affair will be used in like manner.

Many of the outstanding students of the campus are active members of the club. Among those principally responsible for the success of the program are: Edward H. Hale, son of President and Mrs. W. J. Hale, a senior and major in science, also senior class president; Rushton Miller, of Birmingham, Alabama, director of the Tennessee State Collegians orchestra, president of the History Study Club, and a member of the Omega Psi Phi fraternity; Anita Smith, "Miss History Study Club" for 1940, a junior, a pledgee of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority, and a major in the department of History and Social Science; and Ruth Thomas, a senior from Chicago, Illinois, secretary of the History Study club, the Forensic society and assistant secretary of the Tennessee State Player's Guild.

HISTORY STUDY STUDENTS HOLD NEGRO BUSINESS SYMPOSIUM

Members of the History Study club of the Tennessee A. & I. College, one of the largest departmental clubs of the institution, brought together outstanding business men and women of Nashville at the Negro Business Symposium held at the college on November 18.

The principal address made by Mr. T. J. Huddleston, prominent business man of Yazoo City, Mississippi, stressed efficient service, as the basis of successful business.

(Continued on next page)

Mr. Huddleston is the owner of a 2,000 acre plantation, the owner of the Century Burial Association, founder of the Afro-American Sons and Daughters—worth over a million dollars, with additional business assets over the state of Mississippi.

Included in the number of Nashville men and women in business who attended the symposium were: Mr. M. G. Ferguson, Citizens' Savings Bank; Dr. I. L. Moore, dentist; Mrs. W. H. McGavock, mortician and president of the State Funeral Directors Association; Mrs. Preston Taylor, owner of Greenwood Park; Mrs. Frankie J. Pierce, superintendent of the Girls' Vocational School; Dr. J. B. Singleton, Meharry Medical College; Mr. Wm. Gunter, embalmer; Mrs. Clemmie White, superintendent of the Home for the Aged; Mr. Frank Thorpe, Negro Circulation Manager of the Nashville Banner and Tennessean; Mr. S. Hemphill, printer, The Hemphill Press; Mr. J. Clark, Clark Brothers Floral Co.; Dr. W. J. Hale, president, Tenn. A. & I. College; Dr. G. W. Gore, Jr., dean, Tenn. A. & I. College; and Prof. Merl R. Eppse, chairman of the division of History and Social Studies and club adviser, Tennessee A. & I. College.

An interesting feature of the meeting was the talk made by Mr. Heywood Turner, who lives fifteen miles from Nashville, is more than a hundred years old, and was a slave for fifteen years.

MISS MODESTINE YOUNG IN JOINT MUSICAL PROGRAM

Miss Modestine Young, charming soprano, appeared on the musical program sponsored by the Alpha Psi Omega chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority, on November 22 at the East Vine Avenue Church in Knoxville.

Among the numbers which were delightfully rendered by the young artist were: Tchaikowsky's "None But the Lonely Heart," "A Spirit Flower," Campbell-Tipton; "Song of the Open," La Forge; and Schubert's "Ave Maria."

Knoxville was delighted to have one of its daughters return in such grand triumph.

Course No. and Title	Section	Hrs.	Time Days	Room
451 Dietetics		4	(Lab-4 additional hours) Lect 11 T Th	W304
462 Costume Designing		3	(Lab-4 additional hours) 3 M W F	W302
INDUSTRIAL EDUCATION
200 Required Industrial Education		2	8 T Th S	I101
200 Required Industrial Education		2	3 M W F	I101
202 Construction and Use of Shop Machines		3	10-12 M W F	I101
222 Mechanical Drawing		3	8-10 M W F	I101
302 Cabinet Work		3	10-12 T Th S	I101
312 Methods in Shop Subjects		3	1-3 T Th	I101
402 Carpentry Work		4	1-3 M W F	I101
LIBRARY SCIENCE
211 Library Science for Teachers		3	1 M W F	Library
332 Classification		2	2 M W F	Library
412 School Library Administration		3	2-4 T Th	Library
MATHEMATICS
101 Elements of Mathematics	Sect D	3	8 M W F	A302
101 Elements of Mathematics	Sect E	3	11 M W F	A302
101 Elements of Mathematics	Sect L	3	9 T Th S	A302
101 Elements of Mathematics	Sect F	3	11 T Th S	A302
212 College Algebra		3	10 T Th S	A 302
302 Pure Analytical Geometry		3	10 M W F	A302
322 Business Statistics		3	11 M W F	A301
MUSIC
101 History and Appreciation of Music	Sect K	3	8 M W F	W203
101 History and Appreciation of Music	Sect A	3	1 M W F	W203
101 History and Appreciation of Music	Sect B	3	11 T Th S	W203
101 History and Appreciation of Music	Sect C	3	9 T Th S	W203
202 Harmony		3	10 M W F	W203
302 Music for Secondary Schools		3	10 T Th S	W203
402 Composition		3	11 M W F	W203
262 Concert Singers		1	4 M W	W200
162 College Choir		1	4 T Th	W200
200 Unit Course in Music		1	Hours to be Arr	W203
172 Orchestra and Band		1	3-5 M W	H210
PHYSICAL EDUCATION
102 Freshman P E—Women	Sect F-L		8 M W	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Men	Sect D-J-I		8 T Th	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Women	Sect E-K		10 M W	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Men	Sect A B K		10 T Th	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Women	Sect I-J		11 M W	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Women	Sect C D H		1 M W	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Men	Sect C E F		1 T Th	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Women	Sect A-B-G		3 M W	Gym
102 Freshman P E—Men	Sect L-G-H		3 T Th	Gym
200 Unit Course in Physical Education		1	Hours to be arranged	Gym
202 Sophomore P E—Women	Sect B E A		9 M W	Gym
202 Sophomore P E—Men	Sect A D		9 T Th	Gym
202 Sophomore P E—Women	Sect C D		2 M W	Gym
202 Sophomore P E—Men	Sect C B E		2 T Th	Gym
300 Swimming—Women			4 M W	Pool
300 Swimming—Men			4 T Th	Pool
302 Principles of Physical Education		3	10 T Th S	A303
312 Corrective Physical Education		3	10 M W F	A303
402 Organization and Administration of Health		3	11 M W F	A303
412 Coaching of Seasonal Activities		4	11 T Th S	A303
PHYSICAL SCIENCE
112 General Science	Sect A	3	11 M W F	H206
112 General Science	Sect C	3	11 T Th S	H206
112 General Science	Sect H	3	10 T Th S	H206
112 General Science	Sect G-L	3	10 M W F	H206
112 General Science	Sect F	3	9 T Th S	H206
112 General Science	Sect I	3	9 M W F	H206
112 General Science	Sect J	3	2 M W F	H206
112 General Science	Sect K	3	8 T Th S	H206
PHYSICS
202 College Physics		4	Lect 1 M W Lab 2-4 M W	H304 H306
SEMINAR
Senior Seminar		1	9 M W	A300
SOCIOLOGY
102 College Orientation	Sect E-G-J	1	1 M W	A300
102 College Orientation	Sect A-B-H-I	1	1 T Th	A300
102 College Orientation	Sect C, D, F, K-L	1	2 T Th	A300
202 Principles of Sociology		3	2 M W F	H207
802 Rural Sociology		3	3 M W F	H207
SPANISH
103-201 Beginners-Intermediate Spanish		6	10D	H202
102 Beginners Spanish		3	1 M W F	H202
102 Beginners Spanish		3	1 T Th	H202
SPEECH
201 Fundamentals of Speech		3	1 M W F	A307
202 Principles and Practice of Public Speaking		3	11 T Th S	A307
302 Play Direction		3	2 M W F	A307
312 Advanced Acting		3	3 M W F	A307
200 Unit Course in Speech		1	Hrs. to be Arr	A307
ASSEMBLY HOUR
			10 a m M Th	