The large group was conveyed to the Community Playhouse in one of the College busses and cars privately owned.

As was true with respect to the production of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" by the Playhouse last year, the audience was highly pleased. Especially entertaining were Robert L. Guinn as Mr. Man-

PRESIDENT W. S. DAVIS WELCOMES VETERANS TO TENNESSEE STATE COLLEGE

More than 700 Veterans were welcomed by President W. S. Davis to the College, Monday 6:00 p. m. October 7, 1946 in the College Auditorium.

The occasions was the initial monthly meeting of all Veterans who are enrolled in the College.

Mr. Alvin J. McNeil, president of Gamma Iota Alpha (Veterans Club) presented Doctor Davis, who complimented the men on their "wise decision in preparation for a rightful place in improving the total civilization of America in the near future."

After Doctor Davis' excellent and challenging address, remarks were made by Mrs. Rachel Patillo, Educational Counselor to Veterans. Interest was increased by the presentation of returned A. & I. "Sons" whose education was interrupted by induction into the Armed Forces. Among the former "Sons" presented were: LeRoy Barnes, Henry Conerway, Horace Goode, Wesley "Sharp-Top" Logan, George Penn, William "Sonny" Thomas, Robert "Bob" Murrell, Fulton Stockell, James Swayze, Albert "All American Umphrey, Alvas Tullos, Charles Carson, Edward B. Johnson and Paul W. Bates.

MR. FRANK YOUNG HEARD AT SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

On October 4, a special assembly was held in the college auditorium at which time faculty and students were privileged to hear Mr. Frank Young, noted Chicago Defender newspaper sports editor, and production manager.

In a preliminary statement President Davis announced that A. & I. State College has over 2100 students and that this year's enrollment represents a record enrollment for the College. President Davis also complimented Mr. Young for his valuable contributions to the Poultry Department of A. & I. State College as a means of encouraging students to pursue training in this department.

Coach Henry A. Kean introduced Mr. Young, who made the chief address of the occasion. Mr. Young, speaking informally, emphasized the great opportunity for Negroes in the field of Journalism and incidentally paid high tribute to Mr. Shannon Little, an A. & I. graduate now serving as football coach at Bishop College in Texas.

Mr. M. W. Day, another guest of the college who is outstanding in local civic affairs, introduced Mr. Edgar A. Steele, director of research of the Research Company of America, who spoke on the Negro in Nashville particularly and the Negro in America generally.
