

ACCENT

TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

Faculty Institute

May 8-12

May 3, 1978

Lovelace Exhibit Ends Art Series

A one-woman exhibition of paintings and drawings by Nina Lovelace of Atlanta, Ga., will be shown at the Tennessee State University Art Department gallery, Room 17 Women's Building April 23 through May 6.

The exhibition is sponsored by the University's Art and Lectures series committee according to Professor of Art, Gregory Ridley.

Miss Lovelace holds B.S. degrees from Illinois University in painting and from Fisk University in art. Her works have been shown at both alma maters as well as at Vanderbilt University and Peabody College. She has also been a teacher of art at Illinois State and has done free-lance graphics illustrations for television and films.

The exhibition started Sunday (April 23) with a reception from 2 to 4 p.m. Exhibition hours are Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Deadline Nears For University Scholarships

The deadline for applying for Tennessee State University Scholarships and Awards for the 1978-79 academic year is June 1, it was announced this week by the University's Scholarship and Award committee.

In order to qualify, prospective students must submit an application; three letters of recommendation from the faculty and/or Student Affairs staff; provide an official copy of his/her latest transcript; file the University's financial aid application and the Federal Financial Aid form (no award will be made unless these actions are taken); demonstrate competency in written and oral communication; prepare a 500 word typewritten, double-spaced essay on "What TSU Means To Me," (There will be an interview with Mr. Andrew Minor, Director of Career Development); and finally, have a cumulative grade point average of 2.75 or higher.

No application will be accepted after the June 1st date and the award will be made for a maximum of one academic year.

Applications for scholarships and awards are available in Room 3A, Goodwill Manor. Return applications to: University Scholarship and Awards Committee, Goodwill Manor - Room 3A, Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tn. 37203

Have A Happy, Safe Summer!

Profile

Dr. Henderson K. Woods

Dr. Henderson K. Woods, a veteran in education and professor in biology, will retire in August after 30 years of service at TSU and as head of the department for 20 years.

He was director of Minority Support Program MBS, graduate advisor, and has coordinated (in service programs) at three Universities.

Woods has mixed feelings about retiring. "I've enjoyed working here due to the academic freedom," he said. "The only bad experience has been working with inadequate facilities."

He received his B.S. Degree from Ohio Wesleyan University, M.S. from Fisk University, and his Ph. D. was received at Indiana University. He has excelled in the areas of administration, instruction, and research here at TSU.

"It's a good feeling to attend meetings and see students I've taught who are now doctors," he said. "I wish the best for TSU and President Humphries."

Karen F. Brown
Editor

Accent is published each Monday through the fall and spring semester for the faculty and staff at the University. Deadline for inclusion is 10 a.m. each Tuesday.

Bureau of Public Relations

The Department of Sociology Honors Lecture Series presented a plaque to Coach Edward S. Temple in recognition of his contributions to the Department. Sterling Adams (seated left) assistant to President Humphries, and Dr. Sherman Webster (right), professor of Sociology, led in the introduction and presentations.

Mrs. A. D. Archer and Mrs. D. A. Stephens are co-chairman of the Sociology Department Honors Lecture Series. Dr. Levi Jones is head of the Department.

Rogers Selected For MIT

Sheila Rogers, a graduating senior at Tennessee State University, majoring in Electrical Engineering has received a $10,000 fellowship to do graduate work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Beginning this fall, Ms. Rogers will study towards the masters of science degree in electrical engineering.

Named the "Most Outstanding Senior for 1978," Ms. Rogers will graduate with top honors in the Department of Electrical Engineering.

She entered the University in 1974 on a Deans'

Scholarship after being listed in the 1974 edition of "Who's Who Among American High School Students" and being named to the National Honor Society.

At TSU, Ms. Rogers is a member of IEEE, ETA Kappa Nu (serving as president), Society of Women Engineers, Alpha Kappa Mu national Honor society, Alpha Lambda Delta, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority and she was listed in Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities for 1978.

A native of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, she is the daughter of Robert and Lucy Rogers.

Lee Woolery lost his black briefcase on the TSU campus. The briefcase contained important case studies for pending adoptions. The adoptions cannot be completed until the papers are returned. Woolery is offering $50 for the return of the case studies. No questions will be asked. The case studies were in file folders marked "Bradley" and "Stinson". Woolery can be contacted at 327-0833 or 859-2920.

Harold Jackson, director of Public Relations, has been named one of the Outstanding Young Men of America (OYM). The selection was made by the Board of Directors of OYM. His biographical sketch and record of accomplishments will be included in the 1978 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America.

Dr. Frederick Humphries thanks Adele Schweid, Metro Human Relations Commission chairman, as he receives the Commission's Human Relations Award. Fred Cloud, Human Relations director, applauds the awarding.

News Briefs

Dr Calvin O. Atchison was recently appointed chairman of the Board of Trustees for Tau Lambda Chapter Education Foundation of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. The chapter was recently organized by the graduate chapter to solicit and manage funds for the Fraternity's education fund and community projects. Other officers of the Foundation are Dr. Charles Proctor, professor of pharmacology at Meharry and Rev. Wilson Q. Welch, professor of Religion and Philosophy and director of the Honor's Program at Fisk.

The TSU Family contributed $1,967.50 to the Track Dedication Fund during one week before the track meet.

Dr. Evelyn P. Fancher, director of the Library, served as an evaluation Team Captain at the National AECT Convention in Kansas City, Missouri, April 17-20. Three hundred evaluators were required to cover the sessions of the Convention and 15 Team Captains were named.

Dr. Jamye C. Williams, head of the Department of Communication, delivered the Founders Day address for the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs recently. The observance was at the downtown Sheraton Hotel. The theme was "Realizing and Achieving Our Power in Human Energy, Human Resources and Human Rights." Mrs. Mary Lousie Beasley was general chairman of the event.

Dr. Everett L. Witherpoon has been admitted to the 1978 Institute for Educational Management (IEM) Development Program at Harvard University. IEM will seek to train over a hundred senior level administrators from diverse institutions and backgrounds.

Dr. Alonzo T. Stephens, Professor of History and Head, Department of History and Geography was a member of Telecourse Advisory Subcommittee of Nashville and Middle Tennessee that served in the development of The Tennessee Story which celebrates the state of Tennessee's heritage and resources in 12-15 minute TV programs.

Grants Offered For International Education

The Institute of International Education recently announced that the official opening of the 1979-80 competition for professional training in the creative and performing arts is scheduled for May 1, 1978. It is expected that approximately 500 awards to 50 countries will be available for the 1979-80 academic year.

The purpose of these grants is to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and other countries through the exchange of persons, knowledge and skills. Funds are provided under the terms of the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (Fulbright-Hays Act) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens at the time of application, who will generally hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent before the beginning date of the grant and, in most cases, will be proficient in the language of the host country. Except for certain specific awards, candidates may not hold the Ph.D. at the time of application. Candidates for 1979-80 are ineligible for a grant to a country if they have been doing graduate work or conducting research in that country for six months or more during the academic year 1978-79.

Creative and performing artists are not required to have a bachelor's degree, but they must have four years of professional study or equivalent experience. Social work applicants must have at least two years of professional experience after the Master of Social Work degree; candidates in medicine must have an M.D. at the time of application.

Selection is based on the academic and/or professional record of the applicant, the validity and feasibility of the proposed study plan the applicant's language preparation and personal qualifications. Preference is given to candidates who have not had prior opportunity for extended study or residence abroad.

Interested students should contact the campus Fulbright Program Adviser, Dr. Joan Elliott, 320-3504 for further information and application material.

Martin O. Deschenes, assistant professor of French, read a paper on the Senegalese writer, Birago Diop at the National Meeting of the Africa Literature Association. The meeting was April 5-8 in Appalachian, N. C.

ACCENT ENDS ONE STAGE OF GROWTH

When we started the tabloid ACCENT in August, 1977, we had many hopes and aspirations of making this publication truly representative of the University. We also wanted to create a communication device that would illustrate, in a journalistic way, the activities and events on campus, the people who help this institution achieve its goals (largely through PROFILES), and inform the campus community about the accomplishments of those who work here. ACCENT, like an enfant experiencing growing pains, at times did not meet our own expectations, because we often had to forsake our insistence on quality to communicate. So we made mistakes, big ones, little ones and all kinds, However, our intended purpose was never sacrificed.

After this year of growing, we believe ACCENT has gained experience. Based on the premise that quality is something that you seek, ACCENT for 1978-79 will be expanded to include information about student achievements, activities calendar and up-to-date news about the TSU community. Also, we will change our design.

This is our last edition for this academic year. We will print a special edition in mid-summer, however, the regular weekly edition will not begin until August 21, 1978.

Have a pleasant summer.

HAROLD JACKSON
