Daddy

Jack Perry

Colorful rainbows, of things to come

Drink in that dream, you're imagining, Daddy

It's not that easy, like it seems

Sunlight, Moonlight, Crying babies,

Mother whispers— in the room, fresh paint dripping wet, in pink.

Sounds of joy, baby whimpers, but still in the womb-- and plays with toys, jingly things for girls and boys, with no regard for Mommy's tomb --

Land,

Lakes,

Waterfalls,

Love, Cries

Baby falls,

Feed that baby the milk it needs, as tears will fall if you don't proceed,

After all you gave this baby life, so plan it, prepare it. She will, she's gonna, keep you up all night!
